المكاتب: Abbas Abdelazim Khaled .Dr

الثلاثاء, 23 آب/أغسطس 2011 20:56 - المتحديث الأخير الأحد, 11 أيلول/سبتمبر 2011 13:21

Some Services will be offered as free/discounted in Egypt:-

- Providing Consultancy work and studies in strategic planning, urban & regional planning, transport policy, planning, modelling & management, public transport & logistics analysis & management, economic feasibility studies, traffic & environmental impact assessments, traffic safety & traffic engineering, management & operations.
- Advisory services to government organizations including expert knowledge opinion, technical & managerial advise to decision makers on transport and traffic related policy, planning, financing, operations, safety, environmental, logistics, restructuring, reform, PPP, privatization & legal issues.
- Manage multi-disciplinary consultant teams and provide technical steering and feedback on their work
- Developing and delivering professional transport and traffic related training and mentoring courses/programs.
- Lecturing transport and traffic related engineering and planning courses for graduate & undergraduate levels.
- Providing audit and examination services to ensuring quality and standards of postgraduate courses.
- Advisory services to assist in restructuring and documentation of courses and other necessary requirements for international review and accreditation panels.
- Supervising graduate studies including Diploma, M.Sc. & PhD transport and traffic related research dissertations.
- Providing Editorial and Reviewer services for international journals/conferences.
- Professional world class managerial and leadership abilities to assume senior responsibilities.
- Review and endorsement of Membership application in several national and international scientific committees, institutions and organizations.
- Providing Expert witness technical advice for courts and Parliamentary hearings/investigations.